A bit of girlie wisdom...

If you love something set it free. If it comes back it will always be yours. If it doesn't come back it was never yours to begin with. But if it just sits in your living room, messes up your stuff, eats your food, uses your telephone, takes your money and doesn't appear to realise that you HAD set it free...you either married it or gave birth to it.

The nice part about living in a village — when you don't know what you are doing someone else always does.

The best way to forget all your troubles is to wear tight shoes.

One of life's mysteries is how a two pound box of chocolates can make a woman gain five pounds.

The trouble with some women is that they get all excited about nothing and then they marry him.

WRABY ST MARY'S SCHOOL

With the end of term approaching, the pupils of Wrawby School can look back on a busy but enjoyable term, which included a celebration of the Chinese New Year, a visit by Florence Nightingale to Years 1 and 2, and fundraising in support of Comic Relief which raised £211.00

Wrawby School is preparing to mark the end of term with the annual Easter Hats Parade which is taking place in school on Wednesday 1st April followed by the end of term Easter Service in church on Thursday 2nd April at 2m.

The summer term is already starting to look busy, with visits planned to a Power Station and Gainsborough Old Hall as well as the Church Schools Festival and a Road Safety Show in the coming months.

A THANK YOU FROM POSTIE SUE

I would just like to thank everyone for the lovely cards and pressies that I received for Xmas. Wrawby is such a lovely village full of wonderful people and I love my job to help everyone to get their bills and deliver their recycling paper!!!

A huge thank-you again and here's to a great 2009.

Love Postie Sue XXXXXXXX

Police Matters

Again the police had advised that matters in Wrawby had thankfully been very quiet in February, with no recorded activity. Parishioners are once again reminded to report every matter, however trivial, to the police.

Barnardo's

Barnardo's Lincs Training are working with local action groups to see if Barnardo's can be involved in setting up a Social Enterprise within North Lincolnshire that will support local people in their communities. Areas that can be looked at are befriending the elderly and isolated, training, transport, household tasks, gardening etc. and establishing meeting places, cafe's etc.

The North Lincs Co-ordinator is Jill Forsythe on 01469 576354. (Jill.forsythe@barnardos.org.uk) so if anyone wishes to be involved, they should contact her.

Graham Foster, Clerk to the Council, can be contacted on 651250

AWARD FOR WRAWBY RESIDENT

A staunch worker with the North Lincolnshire Music and Drama Festival Society gained Brigg's coveted award for public voluntary service during 2008. Julie Smith was presented with the Joseph J Magrath OBE Award, honouring a former long serving town clerk. Julie was selected for the award by the town council after being nominated by the society's president, Beryl Potts.

The award recognises Julie's "tireless commitment to the work of the North Lincolnshire Music and Drama Festival Society, which encompasses the organisation and promotion of the annual Music & Drama festival in Brigg." The citation said "As a result of Mrs Smith's unstinting enthusiasm, drive and commitment as festival secretary for the past 20 years, the annual Music and Drama Festival continues to provide a wonderful opportunity for people of all ages to perform in both music and drama classes, in a theatrical stage environment, in Brigg."

Brigg Town Council was delighted to take the opportunity to recognise Mrs Julie Smith as a most worthy recipient of the Joseph J Magrath OBE Award for Public Voluntary Service.

Parochial Church Council

The Annual General Meeting of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St Mary's Wrawby will be held in the church at 7.30pm. All are very welcome to attend. New PCC members are being sought at the moment to replace Rosie Hoyle and Stephen Caldwell, who have both served the church and the community for many years. Both Rosie and Stephen will be much missed. However, this presents an opportunity for anyone interested in helping to run the church and build on the good work of existing PCC members. Anyone interested should contact Rosie on 653154 before the AGM. Rosie's departure also means that the PCC is looking for a new secretary, who need not necessarily be a member of the PCC. Again anyone who feels they would like to hone their administrative skills or use them to help the church in Wrawby should contact Rosie or any other PCC member.

Welcome packs are available for newcomers to the village and can be obtained from Church or Rosie Hoyle on 653154. Take one round and get to know your new neighbour!!

Wrawby's Methodist Congregation are continuing to host coffee mornings with cream scones on the first Saturday of every month between 10.00 a.m. and 12.00 noon. The next one is on 4th April

WE NEED YOUR PHOTOS...

Did you know that Wrawby's website (www.wrawby.org.uk) has a photo gallery? We would love to build up its collection of images of Wrawby, events and people. If you have any photos that you would like to contribute, please email them to editors@wrawby.org.uk.

Please be aware that photos will be added to the gallery at the discretion of the editors and if displayed will be accessible to the public. Therefore all requisite permissions must be sought and given before submission.

EASTER HOPE

"It is going to get worse before it gets better" or "the worst is yet to come" have been sayings banded about with regard to the current financial climate and the recession that we find ourselves in at the moment. For many this has brought uncertainty about the future and for some pain and distress at being made redundant and the loss of their job. Redundancy has been described as being like a bereavement, for not only has your job gone, but the camaraderie of colleagues, the security of income has all gone as well, replaced by feelings of anxiety, guilt, and real grief. A sense of helplessness, despair and hopelessness pervades. "What happens now?"

It is said that every cloud has a silver lining, even though it is difficult to see sometimes. There is every chance that eventually this depression will lift and opportunities will once again present themselves. What the current situation has forced us all to do is to take stock and think carefully about the options available to us. It may well be the chance to start completely afresh, perhaps looking for an opening in an entirely different direction. Possibly, it may force us to do something we've always wanted to do but been afraid to try.

In a way following the Easter story is the same. In St John's Gospel Jesus tells his disciples: " you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy...Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy." Jesus speaks these words to his disciples shortly after the Last Supper and was trying to prepare them for the traumatic events about to take place.

The disciples could not really have imagined what was about to take place; the arrest of Jesus, the baying mob demanding that he be crucified to death, the torture and crucifixion itself, the utter devastation at the realisation that their world and their hopes had all been dashed to pieces. "What happens now?"

In their grief and distress they wandered about aimlessly, they'd buried his body and were about to perform the final act of respect when their world and indeed their lives were transformed by the discovery that Jesus was raised from the dead. The lives of the disciples would never be the same again.

Easter is a time of hope, of new beginnings, of joy, but it is preceded by a time of despair, pain and utter hopelessness. It is the joy that ultimately wins over the despair and so I pray that it will again despite the turmoil we are going through at the moment.
