Wrawby Pre-school Officially Opened

The new Wrawby Pre-school was officially opened on 23rd March by Andrew Percy MP, who is seen below cutting the ribbon on the commemorative plaque with Kate Prior and Rob Waltham. The committee were congratulated on their achievement in raising the necessary funding and bringing the new building "in" on time.

The pre-school is extremely grateful to Ian Bolton and his fellow staff at Nisa who nominated the pre-school to receive a charitable grant of £2,100 from the company's 'Making a Difference Locally' award scheme. The money will be put towards the pre-school's next fundraising project to provide an all-weather canopy at the front of the building to enable the children to access outdoor play at all times. The pre-school is also very grateful to all who supported their fundraising including North Lincs Council, Lloyds Bank, and the many residents who bought a brick .

bring them to visit...

A man was blissfully driving along when he saw the Easter Bunny hopping across the middle of the road. He swerved to avoid hitting the Bunny, but unfortunately the rabbit jumped in front of his car and was hit. The basket of eggs went flying all over the place. Sweets too.

The driver, being a sensitive man as well as an animal lover, pulled over to the side of the road, and got out to see what had become of the Bunny carrying the basket. Much to his dismay, the colourful Bunny was dead.

The driver felt guilty and began to cry. A woman driving down the same highway saw the man crying on the side of the road and pulled over. She stepped out of her car and asked the man what was wrong.

"I feel terrible," he explained, "I accidentally hit the Easter Bunny and killed it. What should I do?"

The woman told the man not to worry. She knew exactly what to do. She went to her car boot and pulled out a spray can. She walked over to the limp, dead Bunny, and sprayed the entire contents of the can onto the little furry animal.

Miraculously the Easter Bunny came to back life, jumped up, picked up the spilled eggs and sweets, waved its paw at the two humans and hopped on down the road. 50 yards away the Easter Bunny stopped, turned around, waved and hopped on down the road another 50 yards, turned, waved, hopped another 50 yards and waved again!!!!

The man was astonished. He said to the woman, "What in heaven's name is in your spray can?" The woman turned the can around so that the man could read the label. It said:

"Hair spray. Restores life to dead hair. Adds permanent wave."

Village Hall Lunches

We are delighted to confirm that four more Village Hall Lunches have now been arranged starting from Tuesday 21st April until Tuesday 12th May. Each lunch starts at 12.30pm in Wrawby Village Hall and provides home-made soup, cheese, bread and plum loaf plus tea or coffee all in a convivial format. We hope that you can join us for lunch on one or more of the dates above. For further information or to get involved in helping contact Patrick Keilthy on 01652 655360 or pkeilthy@talk21.com

'Hordes of Hoards'

Brigg Heritage Centre is very pleased to welcome Kevin Leahy, FSA, MIfA, back to deliver his talk 'Hordes of Hoards' about the treasure troves found in recent times.

Date: 15 April 2015 Time: 7pm Venue: The Buttercross

Tickets: £7.00 to include a glass of wine and nibbles, available from the Heritage Centre or the Tourist Information Centre in Brigg.

Christian Aid Week 2015

This year's Christian Aid Week is 10-16 May and the famous envelopes will be delivered to every house in the village during that week. Although this is still a little while away, you can help to make a huge difference to the lives of people in remotest Ethiopia. No amount of money donated is too small and by starting to save even small coins now in readiness, it is amazing how much can be placed in the red envelope when it comes through your door in May. Every penny donated goes to those in real need. Please try to help if you can.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

3rd March 2015

Officials

All the officials for Wrawby Parish Council agreed to serve in office for the period April 1st 2015 to March 31st 2016.

Notice Board

Further to recent comments, the Notice Board at the Village Hall has once again been damaged by vandals. In view of the constant problem of vandalism being seen, it was resolved to re-site the Board in the centre of the village (exact site to be finalised). It is hoped that this re-siting will have the twin benefits of reducing vandalism and making the information in the Board more accessible to residents.

Village Hall Lighting

Another victim of vandalism has been the photocell sensor for the exterior "street" light sited on the outside of the Village Hall. As residents are aware from previous comments, this has also been vandalised on a number of occasions, resulting in the area around the Hall being plunged into darkness. As also previously mentioned, Council has been in discussion with an electrical contractor to look into re-siting the photocell. This has now been done but the cost of previous vandalism and this latest re-siting is over £500.

Police Re-organisation

Councillors heard from a North Lincs Councillor present at the meeting, it is felt that, despite recent adverse comments, the 'new' police arrangements in the Brigg area will actually benefit local residents as it is hoped that the increased use of modern technology will reduce the amount of time officers spend on paperwork, thereby freeing them for increased patrols. Brigg Police Station will remain open and a number of detectives will be based there.

Police Warnings

Securing Cars

Police have advised that residents should be careful about securing cars even if they are just left empty for a small amount of time and also leaving items on display. There has been an increase of these thefts throughout North Lincs and Wrawby was one of the places affected.

Parcel Scam

The scam involves a card being sent to an address and advising that a parcel is waiting for you. To release the parcel there is a charge of £10.00 which is payable over the phone only. There will be no parcel and giving personal financial details over the phone is never a safe thing to do.

Rogue Trader Alert

A lady in Ashby was recently approached by 2 males offering to carry out some building work. The guttering was removed and the lady handed over approx £250. No new guttering has been put up and there is concern the males may return at a later date to demand more money to finish the work. The men are believed to be driving a White Van. If you do see anything suspicious or are approached for similar work, please report to the police.

WRAWBY VILLAGE HALL

Look no further than Wrawby Village Hall as the ideal venue for your children's party, meetings, courses, celebratory parties, christening party, wedding reception etc!

The main hall can seat up to 110 people, there is a small meeting room which can seat about 20 people. There is a fully equipped kitchen & ample car parking.

The hire charges are very reasonable as the one charge covers all that you will need & is not an hourly charge so the hall can be hired for a full day for the same amount. Hire charges for less than half a day can be arranged with the Booking's Secretary.

Please do contact Susan Day on 01652 653699 to book or just to discuss what the hall can offer you.

Keith Thorne

Following the recent Death of Keith Thorne, Rev Marie Thorne has written asking if we could thank people in Wrawby for cards and messages sent from people in the village who remembered them.

Coffee mornings — The coffee mornings with cream scones on the first Saturday of each month carry on this year. Doors open at 10.00am and all are very welcome.

Limited edition Wrawby tea-towels - A small number of souvenir Windmill and Church tea-towels are still available. These make excellent presents, particularly for family and friends who no longer live in the village. The cost is £4.00 each and an image of the tea-towel is available to view on the village website (www.wrawby.org.uk). Ring Sue Day on 653699 or Patrick Keilthy on 655360.

There was once a woman called Val, who was such an incredible Pal, back in March she turned Fifty, so we thought it would be quite Nifty, to tell all the village as well! Belated birthday wishes AV— We hope you had great fun and now we think it's fair to say you really have been done! X X

What a Week

Easter weekend for most of us means a Bank Holiday weekend, may be time off work, certainly off school. A happy weekend to share Easter eggs, time with family and friends. A much needed break after the long winter.

However the first Easter, and the week preceding it, meant a roller coaster of emotions for the disciples of Jesus. It began the Sunday before when they entered Jerusalem with Jesus riding on a donkey and crowds cheering him waving palm branches; very much a rapturous welcome.

But then the week started to go pear-shaped. Jesus caused a commotion in the temple, driving people out; rumours started of the chief priests trying to kill him. The disciples even started falling out amongst themselves when one of the women used expensive ointment to anoint Jesus. Most thinking that it could have been sold to raise cash for the poor. Then some of the disciples tried to take advantage of the others by claiming special privileges when they got to heaven!

Thursday was not a good day! Jesus called his disciples to a supper and, whilst they were eating and drinking, said that one of them with him was going to betray him to those who wanted to kill him. The shock that went round the room, the disbelief and the accusations. Then after the supper he took them for a bit of peace and quiet into the Garden of Gethsemane. He went off to pray and they just fell asleep, only to be rudely awoken by armed guards who seized Jesus and took him away whilst the disciples ran away. One of them followed on at a distance but when challenged denied three times that he knew Jesus. O the shame he felt.

Friday got even worse; a mob demanded that Jesus be crucified encouraged on by the chief priests they got so noisy and demanding that finally they got their way. Jesus was tortured and nailed to a cross along with two criminals. He was taunted by the crowd and the officials, and some of his disciples and mother were at the cross to be with him grieving as he died.

The utter devastation and grief of the next day was unbelievable. Dreams of a new world were shattered. Hope was gone.

But in the still cool of the Sunday morning life changed for ever. The impossible happened, not dead but alive. Jesus met again with his disciples in various situations which left them with no choice other than to believe he truly was alive. Risen from the dead. Words could not describe the emotions. Never would that small band of disciples be the same again. A new dawn had indeed begun.

So, if you think you've had a bad week, think of that group of disciples and all they went through.

Happy Easter Nigel.
