VILLAGE HALL

This is a polite reminder to all those who hire our lovely village hall. PLEASE make sure that you tidy the hall, the kitchen, the loos and the entrance before locking up.

We have had comments on the untidy state of the hall recently and it would be a great shame if we were to lose bookings as a result of people not leaving the hall in the state in which they would wish to find it.

There are brooms, buckets, mops etc in the hall so there is no excuse for not tidying the place.

If this continues to be a problem then the hiring fees may have to rise to cover the extra wages needed to pay the cleaner and I'm sure that nobody wants this!

If anyone wishes to discuss this problem then please ring me, Susan Day (Chairman of the Village Hall committee) on 653699. Thanks

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

The Police Report shows Crime levels in Wrawby for April and May were low with only 2 Criminal Damage and 3 Theft crimes reported. The Neighbourhood Police Team is however becoming increasingly concerned at the growing incidence of poaching and lamping. Residents are asked to report anything they consider suspicious or unusual in this respect.

The Road Safety Partnership has produced a "Twenty is Plenty" card which can be placed in the window of any resident in a potentially dangerous traffic area, and where the existing 30 mph limit may be inappropriate. Local accident figures are showing an encouragingly downward trend and the Partnership is keen to see this continuing. On light evenings and warmer days, there are more children and pedestrians out and about, therefore travelling more than 20mph in these circumstances is inappropriate. The Clerk has a specimen card and further cards can be obtained from Roy Hindmarsh of the Road Safety Partnership, telephone 01724 297478.

Residents will be aware of the substantial amount of effort and money which has gone into making Wrawby Village Hall "second to none" - (new floor, new kitchen, new heating system etc.) Shortly, further improvements will be made, including the provision of car park lighting. Once again, the Parish Council wish to stress that this is a village facility, available for use by all. For further information please contact Sue Day.

Graham Foster, Clerk to Parish Council (01652 651250)

Cheeky Cherries
Lifestyle Group

Three pupils from Wrawby St. Mary's School, Sarah Clark, Georgia Smith and Eloise Nicholson have set up the lifestyle group 'the cheeky cherries', to raise money "mainly for Wrawby pre school and Howsham Park".

They will have a stall at Wrawby Show on 7th August and will also be in Wrawby on the 30th of August with a cake stall at the windmill.

The girls are also planning a kid's club in Howsham village hall every Tuesday afternoon over the holidays from 1 to 3 pm. It is for all children up to 11 years of age, but children 7 and under must be accompanied by an adult. It will be a mix of crafts, activities and play. £1 a session. Children are all welcome to come early from 12 noon each week and picnic in the park behind the hall first. Cakes and refreshments will be available to buy to add to your picnic. The girl's mums are helping out and supervising the sessions.

There are 3 lifestyle groups in Cadney and Howsham this year, and on Sunday the 22nd of August, they will all be working together to put on a summer fair. with all the traditional games, raffle, cake stall etc.

The Cheeky cherries have set up a website you can log on to and keep up to date on their activities:

A change is as good as a rest

Holidays are taken for many reasons but ultimately it probably comes down to doing something different from what we do in our normal day to day life. A change of scenery, a change of pace, a change of country and language, perhaps just different temperatures experienced; all can contribute to what helps us relax on our breaks away from home.

For many a holiday gives us a chance to experience something new. Sometimes that's easier to do when we're not in our familiar environment and amongst people we know. Father Owain spoke in last month's article about trying different churches and experiencing the diversity out there. This is something I try to do when I'm away from home. During my holiday in June I spent a long weekend in Scarborough and on the Sunday night went to the Parish Church (up near the castle overlooking the South Bay) for Evening Praise. To say it wasn't what I expected is very much an understatement.... There was nothing traditional about this service!

The church had given it's young teenagers the chance to lead an act of worship of their own construction and design – so it was out with the organ, the hymn books, the prayer books and in with the keyboards, drums, guitars, laptops and projectors. The laptops were used to present a cartoon of a conveyor belt showing humans going through the life cycle - being born, growing up, meeting partners, having children, growing old and finally dropping off the conveyor belt - shown to introduce their theme "There must be more than this".

Music was loud but with strong rhythm and beat and although I didn't know the songs they were easy to join in with; prayers were acted with dramatic interpretations; stories were told with scripture passages. It was a revelation, filled with enthusiasm, deeply spiritual and very thought provoking. If I'd known before I went that the service would have been like that then probably I wouldn't have gone, because I'm an old fuddy duddy. How glad I was that I didn't know, and so able to experience the wonder.

Sometimes all we need to do is to create the opportunity like that church did and discover the hidden talents waiting out there. Like a holiday a change is as good as a rest. Nigel
