METAL AND CABLE THREATS

Theft of metal and cable not only cost the economy millions every year, the disruption this type of incident causes impacts on our day to day life. The global rise in the price of metal has led to a massive increase in associated thefts. Particularly common incidents include theft of lead from rooftops (including on several occasions from St Mary's Church), theft on railway lines, BT cables and power lines.

We really need the help of the local community if we are going to stand any chance of catching those responsible.

We would encourage you to ring in with details of any unmarked vehicle near to construction sites, electrical sites and uncovered manholes. BT has had many incidents where thieves remove manhole covers then cut and drag the cable away.

Railways are another common area to be targeted; any personnel working on the network should be in the approved uniform clearly displaying the organisation that they are working for.

Please be aware that most construction and building sites have their hours of work restricted by planning consent; if there is activity on the site outside of these hours then alert the police.

Reports of black or acrid smoke can indicate offenders are burning the sheath off cable. Cable commands a greater price when sold if the sheath is no longer on the cable.

Remember if in doubt ring the police you could be preventing a whole community being without power, telephones and other services not to mention helping us to catch a thief! We will not mind in the least if you report something in good faith, which turns out to be a false alarm.

For an incident in progress ring 999 otherwise contact us on 0845 60 60 222.

Many thanks
Sgt Liz Staff, Brigg Neighbourhood Team

Please note that due to a change in personal circumstances; Wrawby St. Mary's Teddy Bears Club is taking an early summer holiday with immediate effect. We hope to restart later in the year. Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience caused.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Points from Parish Council Meeting 7th June 2011

1. Police Matters

The police advise that May was thankfully a very quiet month from crime in Wrawby with only one crime (a non-dwelling burglary) being recorded. The police, whilst being pleased with this situation, ask that Wrawby residents guard against complacency and report anything suspicious, however small.

With reference to the previously described campaign against wildlife crime, the police advise that four males, believed to be hare coursing in this area, were stopped by police, summonsed, charged with poaching offences. They were all fined, disqualified from driving and the vehicle they were using was seized and later crushed.

2. Parish Council Vacancy

Should anyone be interested in applying for the vacancy on the Parish Council, please put the application in writing to the Parish Clerk, Graham Foster, York House, Tunnel Road Wrawby. DN20 8SF and include personal details, length of time lived in Wrawby etc. Applications are likely to be considered at Council's next meeting at the beginning of July

3. Emergency Plan

Work continues on the Parish Council's Emergency Plan and Wrawby is liaising with neighbouring councils to ensure best practice and information on available resources. This planning is not because an emergency exists or indeed expected – it is a precaution in case one should ever occur. The council needs to be as prepared as possible so that appropriate action can be taken if necessary. The plan should be complete by October.

Wrawby WI

The June meeting of Wrawby WI was attended by 36 members and 3 guests who were enthralled by a wonderfully informative talk by Sergeant Sara Whiting of Humberside Police Helicopter Unit which is based at Humberside Airport.

Sara gave a very informative talk and visual presentation into her life as part of the unit. Of course she had some very interesting tales to tell as well as giving us the facts and figures. Did you know keeping the helicopter in the air costs £2000.00 per hour! Sara explained how vital the Unit is to our community and explained what the future holds if planned spending cuts go ahead.

Wrawby WI meets the third Wednesday of each month at 8:00pm at Wrawby Village Hall. New members and visitors are most welcome please contact Jane Wooliscroft 01652 657569.

The next meeting is 20th July 2011, featuring a talk by Ann Tubb titled The Colours of Bangladesh, there is no meeting in August, however we restart on 21st September 2011 with Wine Making (with a sample of two!) by Marron.

Wrawby Fun Day 30th July 2011, 10.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. Village Hall and Playing Fields 30th July is Fun Day in Wrawby! This is an annual event, now in its 2nd year. Entrance is free, and this year, in addition to a range of stalls, there will be water slides, bouncy castles, Fire Engine visit, "jousting" in the fun pool, various demonstrations including displays of Karate by Koku-Ryu Karate Club, Belly Dancing by Shimea Dancing and much more. Live entertainment will be provided on the day by The James Truepenny Band, and renowned local vocalist Gray! Local businesses will also be attending to offer photographic services and portraits, web and corporate image design, and planning and development advice. We are also welcoming registered charities by providing free stalls.

Wrawby Fun Day is organised by Koku-Ryu Karate Club. Koku-Ryu Karate is a non-profit Martial Arts school, offering excellence in Martial Arts training for all those aged over 4 years. Every year, we donate to several good causes. At this year's event we will not only be fundraising for our students and community but we are also helping to raise funds for Mike Saxby, a 15 year old local student from Sir John Nelthorpe School who is going to Malawi under the World Challenge initiative to help make a difference for the families there.

CHURCH BUILDINGS – ASSET OR LIABILITY

As I write these notes, fresh in my mind are comments made by the Archdeacon to my fellow churchwardens and myself at her recent Visitation. These occasions are when newly elected churchwardens take an oath of office before the Archdeacon as the Bishop's representative.

One of the many functions of a churchwarden is the responsibility of the maintenance of the church building, the Archdeacon uses these Visitations to remind churchwardens of their duties and to advise on the help available. The rising cost of repairs and maintenance, together with frequent thefts of lead from church roofs (as we at Wrawby have suffered) give rise to comments like we would be better off without such ancient and costly buildings.

John Brown of the Churches Tourism Association reminds us all of what church buildings are for:- “.it is on show 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, come rain or shine. It never has a day off. It constantly proclaims a message to all be they religious or non-religious: God is in your midst. Its walls may have been erected by local builders, its furnishing and fabric the work of local craftsmen and women. Its shape tells its own story, its windows sometimes portrays biblical stories or portraits of saints. Around it lie the remains of people of former generations.There is increasing evidence that it is not just the religious who wish to enter its doors, but those of other faiths and of no overt faith allegiance at all. Sometimes the desire is to admire the building, its architectural heritage , as well as its symbolism; sometimes to engage with the ‘God in the midst’ which is the buildings raison d'être; sometimes the reason is elusive to words, there is a seeking, a searching, a longing, often which life's particular circumstances have thrown up for the individual or couple or family. The church building is the place where people seek answers to questions they often find it impossible to construct.”

He goes on to say that the building is part of the mission of the church and an open door is the sign of a welcome even if there happens to be no one in the church at the time. Most church buildings precede generations of people currently alive, and most will succeed these generations. It is a reminder for those of us with the responsibility of looking after an ancient building such as ours at Wrawby that we are but stewards in our lifetime, passed on to us by those who have gone before, to be cared for and passed on to those who come after. Whether you wish to look at the architecture, or visit as part of genealogy research (as others have done), or simply soak up the quiet atmosphere and seek your own answers, Wrawby church is open during the day in school term times.
