OPEN GARDENS A TRIUMPH

The open gardens were a great success, despite the weather. There were 165 visitors, half of who were from the Wrawby/Brigg area and half from further afield; including Lincoln, Grimsby, Hull, Doncaster and beyond. Nearly £1100 was raised, half from entrance fees with the balance made up from raffle tickets, tombola and various refreshments. Visitors enjoyed the gardens on show as well as the other varied attractions, such as classic cars, artist studio and beekeeping. The various exhibitors seemed to enjoy the experience as much as the visitors. Thanks go to all those who made the day a success and to Dee and Marion, who entertained and fed the hungry garden exhibitors later that evening.

Sheila Neave, Chairperson of the Brigg and District Committee for Christian Aid would like to very much thank all those who participated in the recent fundraising activity. It proved to be a huge success, despite the dreary day, with people travelling some considerable distances to look at the gardens on display. Special thanks goes to John and Mel Stanton for their organizational skills in getting the whole thing up and running, collecting raffle prizes and the ensuing advertising that brought people to Wrawby. It is very much thanks to them and those who opened their gardens, selling programmes and raffle tickets, that we raised the phenomenal amount of £1086.13 on the day.

This has contributed to a total for the year of £2463.99, to date, raised in this village alone. Other fundraising has included house to house collections, the Humber Bridge Walk, associated gift aid and £107 raised by school children having a non-uniform day. Sheila would like to thank everyone, most sincerely, for their support in raising this very, very pleasing amount.

WRAWBY COMMUNITY CHOIR

Members of Wrawby Community Choir met at the Black Horse for a meal on the 20th May to say goodbye to Phil Lenthall-Green who had been our musical director for the last 5 years. The choir have appreciated Phil's commitment and we wish him well in the future.

For a while we were concerned about whether we would be able to continue but thankfully we have been rescued by a village resident, Cheryl Riley who has agreed to lead us in the future.

We are a community choir but are fortunate enough to be able to meet in the Church, which is a beautiful place to sing.

We meet every Wednesday in school term times between 8 and 9pm, we sing for fun and there are no auditions.

New members are always warmly welcomed and we would be happy to see you anytime, please feel free to check us out without any obligation.

If you would like to know more you can ring Chiara Griffiths on 07840407590 or Sue Rawlings on 07846676991.

Parish Council Meeting Tuesday 2nd June

Sponsored Walk

Brigg Rotary Club have organised a sponsored walk on Sunday 12th July 2015. The walk is from Brigg Market Place to Scawby Park and return. Full details are in the Notice Board.

Domestic Safety

The Police are keen to combat 'distraction' burglary and posters have been produced. Again, information has been placed in the Notice Board.

CPRE

Council continues to support the Campaign To Protect Rural England and the local Branch has organised a day 's conference entitled "Extreme weather – its impact on you" in Brigg on Saturday 11th July 2015 (10.am – 3.30pm, lunch provided) at the Steel Rooms, 1 Spring Parade, Brigg. Full details and booking details can be obtained from Jenny Haynes 01652 618744 (e-mail Jenny.haynes@btinternet.com).

Bridge and Roundabout works

Councillors were advised that the Airport roundabout construction works are proceeding satisfactorily but the Barnetby Top roundabout plans have been slightly delayed and work will not commence until early next year. The work schedule to strengthen the Melton Ross railway bridge has now been finalised and will take place in September/October 2015.

Defibrillator

Residents are once again advised that the defibrillator has now been fully installed at Vicarage Motors – full details in last month's magazine. If any resident was unable to attend the training session held earlier this month, please contact a Parish Councillor (list on Village website – Wrawby.org.uk)

Best Kept Village judging

Following the success of Wrawby in recent years we hope that villagers will continue to show pride in presenting the village in its best light for the 2015 competition. The CPRE have advised that judging for this year's competition will take place between 21st July and 4th August. They are not able to give more precise dates as it's down to the judges to organise the time.

Please do your bit to help the village perform well in this years competition.

THE TAPLING TAPESTRY

A North Lincolnshire Treasure

How many of you know about a local treasure hanging in the church? The Taping Tapestry is a wall-hanging manufactured for Thomas Taping for an international exhibition and then donated to the parish in the early 1880s. It depicts Jesus blessing the children, and was selected to be one of the "100 Treasures of North Lincolnshire" by the North Lincolnshire museum service.

Thomas Taping was born in Wrawby in 1818, the son of a local farmer and brick-maker, and made his fortune in London. He never forgot his village roots, making a number of financial gifts, as well as the Tapestry, to Wrawby. For example he gave annual prizes to the school and helped set up the Reading Room that used to stand in Little Lane.

Unfortunately, 140 years of display has taken its toll, and the condition of the Tapestry is deteriorating. Wrawby Local History Group is appealing for financial help towards the cost of cleaning, and restoring the Tapestry so that it can remain available and on display for at least another 140 years.

PLEASE WILL YOU HELP US!

The history group will have a stand and collection box at the village show on August 8th, or donations may be sent directly to the Secretary: Kay Rothery, Priory Garth, Brigg Road, Wrawby, DN20 8RH (please make any cheques out to Wrawby Local History Group).

ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD

The Revd Marian Toyne (Tunnel Road), who as a Deacon has been Curate of Frodingham for the past year, will be ordained Priest by the Bishop of Lincoln in his cathedral on Saturday, 4th July at 5.30 p.m.

Marian will preside at the eucharist for the first time on Sunday, 12th July at 10.30 a.m. at St Lawrence's, Frodingham. She will continue to serve in that parish as an unpaid "minister in secular employment" alongside her full-time post as Head of Humanities at Brumby Outwood Academy.

All are welcome to attend both these occasions. Please remember Marian in your prayers at this time, together with her husband Dee and their sons Thomas and Joshua.

SAFER NEIGHBOURHOOD and POLICE MATTERS

Police Report

Recorded crimes in May 2015

- 1 x Interference with a motor vehicle
- 1 x Criminal damage under £5000

Police were called routinely after a sudden death at a care home, and when someone was seen walking on the motorway. Police were also called to a domestic dispute and after a caller had received a suspicious email.

Crimestoppers warns public against scammers impersonating the charity

Crimestoppers has been alerted to a small number of calls where scammers have been impersonating our call handlers and asking for people's personal information, including their bank details.

The charity has been warned about a group of scammers who have 'hijacked' our 0800 555 111 number. The scammers are calling people, saying they are "Crimestoppers at the Home Office" and directing them to our website to clarify our number. They are then asking for personal details.

Crimestoppers has never, and will never, make cold calls to members of the public asking for any personal details, so if anyone does receive a call from someone asking for personal information and claiming to be from Crimestoppers, please report it to Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040.

Roger Critchell, Director of Operations for Crimestoppers, said: "We are currently talking to our phone service provider to attempt to resolve the situation over our number being hijacked and hope this can be rectified as quickly as possible.

Wrawby Show Don't forget to start preparing for the Wrawby Horticultural Society's annual show on the 8th August. There will be the usual categories for vegetables, flowers, baking, crafts, children etc., so get gardening. The photography subjects are "sunset", "unusual aspect of Wrawby" and for children "pets". For children making Lego the subject is Wrawby Garage.

You are invited to join the Penistone Line Partnership who are on a 7 mile linear walk along public footpaths from Barnetby to Brigg visiting Wrawby postmill along the way! Catch the train departing Brigg at 09.10 on Sat 4th July to Barnetby station for the start of the walk at 9.45am.

Details from Stuart Parker on 01522-534655. www.penline.co.uk.

The training to use the defibrillator was well attended, with over 40 people from the village taking advantage of the sessions ran by LIVES. The training also taught people CPR techniques. The Defibrillator is situated on the outside wall of Vicarage Motors. Anyone who was unable to attend on the day can contact a member of Wrawby Parish Council. (see page 3)

Don't forget Wrawby Village Hall is a great venue for parties, meetings etc. with very reasonable hire charges. Please contact Susan Day on 01652 653669 to book or discuss what the hall can offer.

ARE YOU A WOULD-BE HACK!

We are looking for someone to join the existing editorial team for the Wrawby Church and Community News. This is not an onerous role. It involves a monthly meeting, lasting less than an hour, to bring together the content received from various organisations within the village. Every fourth month you would be expected to bring this all together to produce the final newsletter.

If you are interested please contact the editors (editors@wrawby.org.uk) who are a friendly bunch and will offer lots of advice and support.

My dear friends,

Greetings and good wishes from the Methodist Community here in Wrawby. It seems hard to believe that I have been here almost twelve months and though my "patch" on the Methodist Circuit takes in everything from Barnetby to Waddingham and Kirton Lindsey it has been good to begin to get to know folk in Wrawby through Coffee Mornings, Village Lunches, Quizzes and Social Nights and the occasional Sunday preach.

At time of writing I am just preparing for a few days break in a Retreat House/Conference centre called Fald y Brenin. A book has been written about it. We live in a culture which so often seems geared towards complaining or even getting our pound of flesh. The principle on which Fald y Brenin is formed is one of blessing. Paul writes in Romans that we are even to bless those who persecute us. I firmly believe that if we could learn to bless people in our prayers, with our words and by our lives that we may see the beginning of the transformation of society. I have on my desk at the minute a copy of the old Sankey hymnbook in preparation for a Sankey night at our Barnetby Chapel. There's an old hymn in there that says "Have you had a kindness shown, pass it on". Our blessing others is rooted in what God has done for us in Christ who came into the world to forgive human sin and show how much God loves each one of us. It is a response to that! So can I invite you to actively seek to see how you can bless others as well as in your prayers, in every word you speak and by your deeds too.

I guess it's about our whole approach to life. Are we optimists or pessimists? Is the glass still half full or is it half empty? Can we see that in spite of whatever may be happening to us that our lives are safe in the care of a loving God. Tonight at Barnetby we will be singing "Count your blessings" If we can learn to count our blessings, then perhaps our gaze will be lifted, we will see more of the goodness of God and we may just find that blessing others too becomes a way or life.

Have a great summer,

Bless you,

Ian

Rev Ian H Wales.
