An ode to Postie Sue

*Oh Postie Sue we love you, life won't be the same on our road,
There'll be no Easter bunny a-riding, nor Santa carrying a load,
The parcels will not be left nestling, amongst plastic boxes and things,
But worst of all postie, your smile will not beam nor will we hear your bell rings.
Our poem may be quite dreadful, and really not worth the space,
Oh Sue we will miss you, but welcome Lisa to step in your place.
Sue – with all our love and thanks for everything you've done as our Postie. We know you haven't gone far, but it won't be the same without you!*

Postie Sue's route has changed from 16th May. She will continue to deliver to most of Wrawby but no longer to those who live on Brigg Road. She will be missed as you can see from the poem above from one of those on the "ex" part of her round.

Wrawby Wanderers Walk the Walk

Rosie Rooker, Louise Tandon, Elaine Southern, Lindsey Taylor and Julie Hebblewhite have completed the half marathon for Breast Cancer Care. We had a fantastic time; from the moment we boarded the train and saw all the other women wearing their Walk the Walk tee-shirts there was a great atmosphere and we found that people (mostly men!) were very keen to donate to the cause once they found out what we were doing! On arrival in Hyde Park we were entertained by singers, dancers and comedians and there were several celebrities taking part, including Gabby Logan, Jennifer Saunders and Ruby Wax. At midnight we set off through the park and on to the streets of London, walking past many of the famous landmarks including Buckingham Palace (twice) and Big Ben. We had lots of support from the partygoers of London and the volunteers who were acting as marshalls. Although it was a little chilly, the rain held off and we finished as the sun rose over the huge pink tent in Hyde Park.

We hope to have raised over £1000 and would like to thank everyone who has sponsored us, most of whom live in Wrawby.

Happy Birthday to Little Explorers!

Time passes quickly and Little Explorers has just celebrated it's first birthday with a party at The Pink Pig in Holme. 17 families with 22 under 5's had loads of fun on a pink tractor ride to see the piglets including daddy "Boris". We fed the goats, sheep and saw Rhubarb and Custard the curly pigs. The kids all had a party lunch, followed by a Pink Pig birthday cake, while the carers had a cup of tea! A great time was had by all!

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Notes from Wrawby Parish Council Meeting 3rd May 2011

(a) The police advised that in March 2011 there were 5 recorded crimes in Wrawby - 2 burglaries in dwellings (both forced entry via patio doors), 1 criminal damage, 1 theft and 1 neglect of children. There were 4 other minor matters reported to the police, Once again, residents are asked to remain vigilant, safety conscious etc and to report anything suspicious, however minor, to the police.

Wildlife crime continues to be a problem in the rural area of North Lincs, including Wrawby. Over recent weeks, various vehicles have been stopped and if offences have been committed, these have been dealt with accordingly. Some earlier cases have now gone through the court system resulting in magistrates issuing fines, driving bans and seizing vehicles and then having them crushed. Once again the police ask for the public's assistance on this matter and request as much information (vehicle registration no's etc), as possible.

The police has supplied council with a copy of its April Newsletter in which the police describe their 2011/2 priorities and their full policing plans for 2011/15. If you would like a full copy please contact Gill Pike, Humberside Police, Pacific Exchange 40 High Street Hull HU1 1PS Tel: 01482 334818 or e-mail gill.pike@humberside.pnn.police.uk

(b) Council is at present preparing an 'emergency' plan for the village and is liaising with North Lincs Council on this. Full details will be advised shortly to residents but in the meantime anyone who wishes to obtain details or who can help in any way is asked to contact the Vice-chairman of Wrawby Parish Council - Patrick Keilthy on 655360.

(c) Speed Limits - North Lincs Council is at present carrying out a full review of speed limits on roads in its area and again, full details will be advised in due course.

Wrawby WI

The May meeting of the Wrawby WI was attended by 36 members and 7 guests, who thoroughly enjoyed a flower arranging demonstration by Barbara Abbey. Barbara created four themed arrangements whilst giving a commentary detailing her experiences and travels. China, twisted trees with rich splashes of red and gold. Singapore, exotic blooms and rich foliage. Madeira and England also featured. Barbara took the time to explain the culture and the kindness of the people she met.

Wrawby WI meet the third Wednesday of each month at 8.00pm in Wrawby Village Hall. New members and visitors welcome please contact Jane Wooliscroft 01652 657959

The next meeting is 15th June 2011, featuring a talk by Humberside Helicopter Unit and the 20th July meeting features Angela Tubb who will give a talk called The Colours of Bangladesh.

Parish Council Elections & Vacancy

A full list and contact details are on the Parish Council notice board at Wrawby Hall as well as on the Wrawby website.

HELP—Copies of Wrawby News Required

The editors need your help in compiling an electronic archive of all editions of the Wrawby News to enable them to be available on the website for access now and in the future. We have obtained copies of the magazine from its first edition (in the current format) in October 1992 through to spring 1997. We already have electronic copies from April 2002 to date. What we would like is a copy of any editions in the "missing" years—April 1997 to March 2002. If anyone has a copy/copies of the Magazine from those years, we would be love to borrow it/them for copying. If anyone can help, please contact one of the editors—details on page 2.

We would also love to hear from anyone in the village who might like to assist with the project. The task of scanning the printed versions of almost 20 years of magazine is interesting but challenging to say the least and help would be much appreciated. Obviously some basic computer skills are required but nothing too advanced. Again if you would like to get involved, please contact one of the editors.

As I sit here, at my desk, writing this article, I'm reflecting on the state of my hands. Twelve and a half hours since the day began, I've amassed a number of ink splodges!!! From my pen, as I've been writing notes, from the paper in the printer which seems to like jamming every half dozen sheets. In another 30 minutes time, the members of St. John's Standing Committee will be here for our meeting, so I really should go and wash my hands! But if I go, it's another interruption in a busy day. And so I continue typing, pretending that the ink isn't there.

All too often, our relationship with God can be like this. He's there, working in and through each of us. The signs of His wonderful presence can be obvious, if we just take a few moments to look – He's in our lives, in our relationships and in the world around us. But life is hectic, with many calls upon our time, and with many distractions. We find ourselves too busy to do anything about the sense of God's presence in us, too busy to respond to His still, small voice of calm which is gently calling us to Himself. If we try, we can ignore Him and do all that we feel we need to do.

But perhaps even worse, when we do feel the need to pray, to ask for God's help, guidance or support for ourselves or our loved ones, sometimes we find ourselves too busy to hear how he answers us. He may respond, once again, with that still small voice, which we do not notice, or it may be through a person whom He sends into our live, but who goes unnoticed. All because we are doing all that we can to get through all the demands on our time – work, the housework, family time, visiting friends and so forth.

The weather's fantastic at the moment – perhaps we should all take some time out from the hustle and bustle of daily life, find somewhere peaceful and quiet. I personally like to 'escape' to the car park at the village hall and look out over the fields and in the direction of the motorway. When I take more time to be with God, in stillness and peace, I find my life transformed – life becomes like the view from the car park - a thin vein of activity (the motorway) surrounded by God's peace, beauty and love (the fantastic view). I find myself no longer trying to squeeze God into my busy schedule, but rather that God is there helping me through the commotion and walking alongside me. And in that peace, I am able to listen to, rather than avoid, what God has to say to me.

Ignoring things doesn't make them go away, so I better go and wash my hands.

With my prayers and every blessing,

Owain
