The Hors d'oeuvres...

What did the pie say to the chips? "I can't talk now. I'm a little horse."

After eating a suspect burger, the patient is now in a stable condition.

Did you hear about the supermarket that's re-labelled its meat aisle "the bridleway"?

My doctor told me to watch what I eat, so I went out and bought tickets for the Grand National.

Those Tesco burgers were nice, but I prefer My Lidl Pony....

Why has it taken so long to discover the horse meat in lasagnes? Because the cheese on top is Mascarpone!!

Are you happy to have horse in your burgers? (Answer 'Yay' or 'Neigh'.)

Did you hear about the disgruntled butcher's assistant? He claims his work is "like flogging a dead horse".

I had a burger last night and there's still a bit stuck between my teeth...

And finally.... if you don't fancy eating beef burgers any more you could always switch to venison ones. Trouble is, they're dead dear.....

PLEASE PARK PRETTILY & WITH CONSIDERATION...

Little Lane residents have been concerned for some time about inconsiderate parking at, or near the junction of Little Lane/Vicarage Road.

Such parking has restricted access and, occasionally, blocked larger vehicles from gaining access to the lane.

Following an on-site meeting with Ward Councillor Nigel Sherwood, residents are working in partnership with various agencies to resolve the situation and will meet Cllr Sherwood and NLC Highway officers later in March.

In the meantime, residents are asking all drivers to be aware of the narrowness of the junction and are requesting drivers to park with consideration when parking in the area.

Wrawby W.I.

Wrawby WI started the year off with Scottish Dancing in January followed by Decopatch in February.

The speaker for March is Michelle Bolton who will give a talk "Design and Planning Solutions for Difficult Areas in the Garden". Michelle used to live in Wrawby so will have first hand experience of the problems we have.

Wrawby WI have a varied programme for the coming year, Hair by Paul Gordon, Rachel Green (local celebrity chief), Sue Hickson (the only lady coxswain on the Humber) to name a few.

Wrawby WI meets the third Wednesday of the month. If you are interested in becoming a member or wish to have a taster session please contact Jane Wooliscroft on 01652 657959

Congratulations and thanks to Helen Marsden.

Easter day marks 30 years since Helen started as organist at St. Mary's church. Thanks also to husband Robin and parents Bob and Barbara Green who have supported Helen and helped her with childcare over the years. Here's to the next 30!!

Village Hall Lunches

Village hall lunches are continuing at 12.30 p.m. every Tuesday in March. We look forward to seeing old friends and newcomers alike!

We serve home made soups, bread and cheese and Lincolnshire plum bread, tea and coffee. There is no set charge but we ask for a donation.

This Spring we are going to support the Little Explorers, and Christian Aid."

NEW CHURCH ELECTORAL ROLL

Every six years the church is required to have a completely new electoral roll, this year 2013 is the year when we are required to do this. Even if you have been on the roll before you are required to reapply to be on the new one.

Membership of the church electoral roll entitles you to be present at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting and to vote at that meeting.

A person may be on the parish Electoral Roll if they meet all of the following criteria:

1. They are a lay person
2. They have been baptised
3. They are one of the following:
 - a) a member of the Church of England
 - b) a member of a Church in communion with the Church of England
 - c) a member in good standing of a Church which subscribes to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity (not being in communion with the Church of England) and also prepared to declare him- or herself to be a member of the Church of England having habitually attended public worship during the six months prior to enrolment

4. They are at least 16 years of age
5. They are resident in the parish, or if not resident in the parish, have habitually attended public worship in the parish during a six month period prior to enrolment
6. They have completed an Application for Enrolment form

Application forms are available in church or from Nigel Good, 40 York Road, Brigg and should be returned to Nigel by March 16th.

Calling all Future Andy Murrays and Laura Robsons...

After Andy Murray winning Olympic gold in London 2012 and Laura Robson beating former Wimbledon champion Petra Kvitova at the Australian Open, our thoughts turn to warmer weather and tennis in Britain.

Brigg Junior tennis club will resume activities on Wednesday April 17th at Sir John Nelthorpe School courts for coaching with Matthew. Fun activities, matches and events will happen during the season which runs for twelve weeks. A Come and Play session is also on the cards this year with youngsters being able to play in a more unstructured format for an hour on Thursdays at 6pm. Membership and session prices are available from the secretary at 01652 653216.

Brigg Senior Club will also start again on Tuesday April 16th at 6.00 p.m. New and former members are most welcome.

FROM THE REGISTERS :

FUNERAL: 13TH FEBRUARY - ALICE COOPER

The editors would like to echo the feelings of the village and express our sympathy to the family and friends of Jack Barratt following his tragic death. The floral tributes at the Barton Road junction are a striking demonstration of how many have been touched by Jack's passing.

A Lenten Study Group is taking place on Wednesday evenings 7.30 - 9.00pm at the home of Dee and Marian Toyne, Glebe Farmhouse, Tunnel Road.

6 March - Lost and Found! 13 March - Action Speaks Louder Than Words!

20 March - Accountability (Someone to blame!) All are welcome.

Beech Villas, Wrawby?! - If you know of any houses in Wrawby that are, or were previously, known as Beech Villas, Mr. Sparrow on 01724 864932 would like to hear from you. Mr. Sparrow is researching his family tree and has found that his parents both lived in Beech Villas, Wrawby. He has been to Wrawby to see if he can find the houses but had no luck.

Cream Scones and Coffee - On the first Saturday every month, there is a coffee morning in the church from 10.00am to 12 noon. Why not pop in to sample cream scones and relax over a cup of coffee (or tea if you prefer!)? All are welcome.

Walk your way to health - Details of local led walks can be found on our website at www.wrawby.org.uk

Contributions - If you have a village event that you want to publicise, or if you would like to contribute an article for this newsletter then please contact the editors (details on page 2)

Bakersfield Delivery - Thanks to the four people who volunteered to help with delivering the magazine in Bakersfield. New arrangements have now been made to replace Karen.

One of our readers has found a car key on Barton Road, close to the footpath down to the motorway. If you think it could be yours please call Martin Plowes on 07799573948

God so loved the world

Several years ago when I was doing my Local Preacher training, a group of us were asked to explain why we believed in God. We were told we had to give our answer taking a maximum of 3 minutes.

I've pondered my response quite a lot over the past few years, but still not managed to get it down to 3 minutes. Often I think I can give a really easy-to-grasp explanation, but then I have to expand a few details here and there and end up taking longer than I want. The reason we were challenged to do this, was because our speaker said that "the average person" won't listen to church goers talking about God for longer than 3 minutes - if we haven't said something worthwhile in that time, we've lost them.

Trying to sum up all the amazing things that God has blessed me with, in less than 3 minutes, and trying to put over how my faith has been tested and grown over the years, in such a way that someone who isn't remotely interested in God might find intriguing, is a tall order. Which bits need to be said in 3 minutes and which bits can be left until later?

During this time of Lent, as we head towards Easter - the despair of Good Friday and the joy of Easter Sunday, there is much to ponder about God. How great is that love, that suffered all that for me? Am I really worth all that? How can I ever respond? Did Jesus ever doubt that I was worth all the suffering? I'm not just pulling these questions out of thin air - they are questions that I mull over on a regular basis. It's a challenge to me that Jesus would still have gone to the cross if I had been the only person in the world. And, dear reader, he would still have gone there if you had been the only person in the world! Jesus believed we were worth it. And no matter how much we think that "God" is difficult to grasp or understand, his love for us is so amazing, and his grace is so wonderful, that he really does think we are worth the suffering of all the horrible things that happened during that first Holy week, ending up with death on a cross.

Back to my first point about trying to condense why I believe into 3 minutes. There is a danger, in my eyes, of making something so wonderful, into something far too simple. But, I sometimes wonder if God would say that there is a real danger of me making something so simple, into something far too complicated.

John's gospel in chapter 3 has the verses: "God so loved the world that he gave his only son, that everyone who has faith in him may not perish but have eternal life."

Simply put. Simply love. Simply for you!
