Don't let the winter fog cloud your judgement....

As winter approaches the drivers amongst us will be facing darker mornings and the prospect of setting out to work in frost and fog. Please drive safely and take what you will from the following tale.

It was the middle of a very foggy night in the North West Atlantic. Two lights are heading directly for one another. Over the radio an American voice is heard to say " This is Admiral Schultz on the USS Nebraska, we suggest you alter course by 10 degrees to port " .

Back comes the reply , " We strongly suggest YOU alter course by 10 degrees to port " .

The American voice then says " This is Admiral Schultz on the USS Nebraska, the second largest warship in the world which is currently leading the American Atlantic battle fleet. YOU had better immediately alter course by 10 degrees to port " .

Back comes the reply , " This is the Outer Hebrides Lighthouse, but it's your call Jimmy " .

Wrawby.org.uk

Our "new" web site was five years old in October. Thanks to the generosity of local web site authors www.microsoftly.com Wrawby has had an extremely professional web site at almost no cost since 2003, for which we are very grateful. The editors of Wrawby Church and Community News work with microsoftly to "manage" the site and each month our content is used to update the web pages.

Richard, our colleague at micosoftly, will not be able to spend as much time on our site in future so from February 2009 the editors will take full responsibility for updating it and managing the content. We will have the benefit of Richard's expertise in setting up a system to allow us to do this with our limited internet expertise, and he will continue to give us technical support when necessary!!

Is there anyone out there who would like to be involved in running the web site and/or joining the rota to edit the magazine?

Currently Stephen Caldwell, Patrick Keilthy and Pete Townsend take turns to edit the monthly magazine, with Rosy Hoyle joining us for our short "editorial" meetings each month. We would welcome some new blood to help us fill the gap left by Richard. We are open minded about exactly what a new member of the team would do.

If you're interested, please e-mail editors@wrawby.org.uk or give one of us a call....

WRABY WOMENS INSTITUTE

Well over 50 ladies attended the first meeting of the Wrawby W.I. in October. An excellent response which was very encouraging to the organisers. Representatives of the Women's Institute attended to give guidance on how a local branch could be established and there were more than enough volunteers to form a committee.

The new committee will meet on 3rd November to elect Officers to run the branch and make plans for future meetings. It is hoped that there will be monthly meetings, probably on the third Wednesday of the month, with the next being 19th November.

Please contact Alison Walker on 07732 736433 for more information.

Sunday School

Wrawby St Mary's Church is looking at the feasibility of setting up a Sunday School. If you would be interested in your child attending and learning about the Christian faith through stories, songs and activities, please contact either Father Owain or Becky Smith (t. 659266) with your child's name and age and your contact details.

If you would be willing to help out occasionally or regularly, please let us know. It is anticipated that the Sunday School will start in January 2009 dependent on numbers.

Wrawby Parish Council 7th October

North Lincs Council Leisure Services is keen to promote its "Walking The Way to Health" scheme in which many walks (usually about 3 miles) have been arranged for people to enjoy. The walks are led by knowledgeable volunteers and are open to everyone, particularly those who include walking in their recovery from illness programmes. The full list is available from Brigg Tourist Information Office.

The Safer Roads Team at North Lincs Council is keen to promote its "20 is plenty" initiative aimed at reducing speeds of traffic particularly in 30mph residential streets. The team has produced a descriptive card for placing in windows, cars etc and each Parish Councillor will have a small supply from 4 November onwards. Alternatively a card can be obtained from Roy Hindmarsh of the team on 01724 297478.

The Council wishes to express their thanks and appreciation to Mrs Kirstin May and Mrs Louise Tandon for their efforts in decorating the interior of the Village Hall. It is hoped that a "re-opening day" will shortly be arranged for Wrawby parishioners to see the new floor and decorations. (See front page .Ed.)

The Council also wishes to express their appreciation for the work and service provided over the years by Ralph and Shirley Riggall and to wish them a long and happy retirement.

Bible Studies continue in Wrawby – currently studying the Gospels of Matthew. Meeting on 12th and 26th November 7.30pm to 9.00pm. Contact Marian Toyne on 650016 for details. Also 4 week Advent Course from 26th November looking at miraculous births!! All are welcome to attend whether you can make every session or simply when you have time - each session stands on its own.

The Village Hall lunches continue weekly until 9th December between 12.30 and 2.00 p.m. All profits go to the Wrawby Preschool. People of all ages are welcome.

Welcome packs are available for newcomers to the village and can be obtained from Church or Rosie Hoyle on 653154. Taking one round is a good way to get to know your new neighbour!!

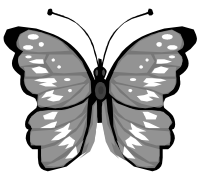

Brigg Badminton Club meets every Wednesday and welcomes new members. Many of the Club are Wrawby residents! Please call 653575 for more details.

The Citizens Advice Bureau RURAL COMMUNITIES MONEY PROJECT will hold a meeting at the Village Hall on 5th November at 2.00 p.m. (See last month's magazine for details.)

St. Mary's church has presented bibles to sixteen children at Wrawby St. Mary's School to mark their move from Key Stage 1 to Key stage 2.

The Back to Church Sunday service at St. Mary's Church was attended by over 60 people and it was good to see the usual congregation swelled by so many visitors. Newcomers were welcomed by regular churchgoers and Fr. Owain Mitchell who led the service. Curate David Eames preached the sermon. Most people also enjoyed chatting over coffee and refreshments after the service.

REMEMBRANCE

The month of November seems to be the month set aside for remembering. November 5th of course, sees the remembrance of a potential act of terrorism that would have changed the face of English history, and one of its chief instigators, Guy Fawkes. The fact that the plot failed is perhaps one of the reasons it is commemorated, it has become Bonfire Night. A night to celebrate and set the skies ablaze with fireworks.

For many, November is the time to remember more recent turbulent times, with Remembrance Day and the recollection of so many who sacrificed their lives for a free world. Words can never convey the debt we owe to them and indeed to those who continue to lay down their lives to ensure that we enjoy the freedoms that we do.

“At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them”.

As Christians we begin the month with two major acts of Remembrance, All Saints Day on November 1st and the following day All Souls. On these two days we especially recall and give thanks for those the church has recognised as supreme examples of godly living, sacrifice, and for the teaching they passed on to others. All Souls or to give it its fuller title, the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, gives us the chance to publicly remember our loved ones who have died. We may hold them in our hearts and remember them always, but the church gives us an opportunity to honour them in a more formal way - how good it is sometimes to be able to open our hearts!

Some would say that the whole of our Faith is based on remembrance; not only do we recall the life and teaching of Jesus Christ, we remember His sacrifice on the cross for us and his resurrection from the dead promising us everlasting life in heaven. We follow his instructions to remember him in the breaking of bread as we celebrate Communion every Sunday echoing with his words :

“Do this in remembrance of me”.

Why this need for remembrance? One possible answer is to do with ‘community’; no matter how much we try to be individuals, human beings are very much social creatures. There is this need for interaction with one another to form what we call communities, a need to ‘belong’, part of which is to realise that the present does not take place in isolation; it has a part with the past and prepares for the future. The past reminds people not only what has gone before but that whatever we face has in one shape or other been faced before. Remembrance helps us then, hopefully to learn from the past and be prepared for the future.

As a recent mobile phone advert reminds : “We are who we are because of all these...” Nigel.
