WRABY 1914 LIVING HISTORY DAY— THANK YOU

On behalf of the Wrawby Commemoration Committee, there are many thank you's that need to be made. So many people were involved in the successful planning and running of the weekend there are too many to name, however some people and groups do need a special mention.

Firstly to Mrs Green and the ladies of the Monday Afternoon group, who made an amazing floral tribute to those from the village who gave their lives in the war. Also to the History Group, who gave these men and women a face with their biographies. We would like to thank the church and Father Owain for their support and advice.

Next to Mr R Greenfield who dug our trench for us and to John Greenfield who turned it from a hole in the ground into a realistic experience for all who ventured in.

A big thank you goes to all the demonstrators and exhibitors who turned out on the Sunday, despite the weather, to make the day what it was and to Mr Lingard for opening his museum and the Mill for opening too. I would also like to make a special mention of the men who camped out overnight in the marquee to make sure it was safe.

Further thanks must to go to everyone who donated money, raffle prizes, time and advice in the run up to the weekend, those who volunteered in whatever way over the weekend and those who made the all the cakes!

Finally we would like to thank everyone who came to any of the weekend events especially those who braved the rains of Friday night and Sunday. We hope you enjoyed the events, learnt something and took time to remember the effect the war had on our community.

Although the event was not intended to be a money making venture, we are pleased to be able to say that thanks to everyone's generous support we do now find ourselves with a small surplus of money. This will be divided between the village groups and we will be able to give a breakdown of this in the next edition of Wrawby News. Louise Tandon

The Holidays Are Over And It's Back To School

Nathan came home from his first day at school. His mother asked, 'What did you learn today?' He replied, 'Not enough. I have to go back tomorrow.'

Mum: How did you find school today?

Youngster: I simply hopped off the bus - and there it was.

Mia: I think we need a new teacher. Mum: Why is that?

Mia: Our teacher doesn't know anything, she keeps asking us for the answers.

When Dad came home, he was astonished to see John sitting on a horse, writing something. 'What on earth are you doing there?' he asked. 'Well, the teacher told us to write an essay on our favourite animal.' Answered John, 'That's why I'm here and that's why Sarah's sitting in the goldfish bowl.'

Mum: Why aren't you doing very well in history?

Paul: Because the teacher keeps asking about things that happened before I was born!

Wrawby Horticultural Show—Thanks

On behalf of Wrawby Horticultural Show, I would like to thank everyone who entered this year's show. Entries were up again at 489. Keep growing , taking photos and cooking and it may be 500 next year.

We had a great turn out and another auction was enjoyed by all.

My personal thanks go to all the committee members who helped with the Annual Show. I greatly appreciated everyone's help and support. I would especially like to thank Val, Sue and Postie Sue for all their hard work in the kitchen serving judge's lunches and teas and a big thanks to John, Sean and my mum for their support and help. Thank you to everyone who donated raffle prizes this year these were gratefully received. Thanks Anita Secretary

Parish Council Vacancy

There is currently a vacancy on Wrawby Parish Council and the Council can now co-opt a person for the vacancy. Anyone wishing to join Council, please forward a brief CV to the Clerk, Graham Foster, either by letter to him at York House Tunnel Road Wrawby DN208SF or by email to gfooster3@sky.com as soon as possible. Councillors will then discuss the matter at a future meeting and all applicants will be advised

Wrawby WI

On 17 September you can get your body in good shape with "Chair Yoga" with Dorothy Foreman. For those of you who are wondering - this will include sitting on the chair and not standing (hopefully)!!

The meeting on 15 October includes a talk by Steve Ward from Uncle Henry's Farm Shop. Most of you will have sampled the delights on sale at Uncle Henry's at Grayingham and enjoyed the tasty food served in the restaurant. (The Farmer's Roll with a dash of brown sauce is a lovely treat for lunch - try it). This promises to be a very interesting insight into growing and preparing locally produced food.

Both meetings start at 8pm in the Village Hall - refreshments will be available and everyone is welcome.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS from August Meeting

Recycling Centre Closure

A final reminder that the Household Recycling Centre at Barnetby will be closed for refurbishment from Wednesday 17th September until 6th October 2014. North Lincs website will show updated information and provide alternative provision. The nearest alternative site is at Broughton. If you have any queries please contact N.Lincs' customer helpline on 01724 297000 or e-mail Wastemanagement@northlincs.gov.uk

Garden Tidiness

The Parish Council has recently received complaints regarding overgrown hedges obstructing pedestrians and therefore asks that all such hedges are kept trimmed. Also, as has been mentioned earlier, Wrawby has once again entered the Best Kept Village competition so residents co-operation in garden tidiness is requested.

EBooks

Ebook learning is now available through North Lincolnshire Library and Information Services. The Service is free, easy to use and compatible with most internet-enabled devices and ebook readers. The Kindle Fire is compatible but Kindle ebook reader is not. All you require to access the service is a compatible device, internet access, a library card number and PIN and the relevant app/free software on your device. Further information is available on telephone 01724 860161.

Graham Foster, Parish Clerk

Recorded Crimes in Wrawby in July 2014

1 x Theft of a pedal cycle

Police were also called regarding a broken down vehicle on the motorway and in relation to two alleged traffic offences. Concern was reported for an individual's safety, and an incident aroused suspicion when a man in a car was seen apparently following some girls on bikes.

At the recent Leaver's Service in St. Mary's, when the school and the community gathered together in order to celebrate the achievements of those children moving in from Primary to Secondary School, and to pray for them, I was asked to give an address on the theme of the Journey of Life. I'd like to pick up on that theme here.

In the service, we reflected on those people who have accompanied us on our journeys so far; those who have taught us, inspired and influenced us, shared their love and friendship with us – the people in our lives who have formed and informed us as we grow. Inevitably, we needed to give some consideration to how, during the journey of life, we experience change – new friendships are formed, new teachers educate us, and so forth. And so as well as looking back we also looked forward to what the journey of life might have in store for each of us. There is also something in all of this about how we ourselves accompany others and how we contribute to their journey through life.

When we think about journeys, we usually think about going from A to B; and the journey of life, in one sense, is the same; we are each moving from birth to death. However, just as a journey from A to B can be complicated by many things – a wrong turn, road works and diversions, the decision to detour and visit a friend on the way – so too is our journey of life. There are many factors, often beyond our control, which can affect our journey through life. This may include our own decisions and choices, the decisions of others, our education, skill and abilities, the job market and the economic situation and so much more. So our journey is rarely straightforward; it's more of a zig-zagging, to and froing journey and life can have many ups and downs, twists and turns.

As a individual and as a corporate member of society and the Church, as a priest and a Vicar, I firmly believe that the one Person who is there throughout each and every journey of life – the constant – is God. We change, our friends and acquaintances sometimes change, where we live, what we do and our personal preferences, tastes and priorities may change. But God is unchanging. His love for us remains constant, as does His desire for us to be in a relationship with Him. He long's to bring us to our homeland in His Kingdom. And like any relationship, our relationship with God requires our effort, our response, and our love towards Him. I also believe, and my own experiences bear this out, that when we try to block God out and make our journey without Him, life becomes far more complicated than it needs to be. That is not to say that with God accompanying us we will never be hurt as we make our journeys, or indeed hurt others, but with God, we share in His suffering as He shares in ours, as we do in any relationship founded upon love.

Wherever you are on your journey of life – just setting off, or nearing the end, at a place of joy and happiness or one of pain and sadness – may God be with you to guide and protect you. May He give you His comfort and His peace, His light and His joy, in this world and the next.

With my love, prayers and every blessing,

Owain
